I am Datuk Muhamad Umar Swift
The Chief Executive Officer of Bursa Malaysia Bhd.
The stock market has been falling recently
There are still many retail investors blindly entering the stock market
I don't know how to analyze the direction of the stock market
Our LFX Trading Committee recommends several books to everyone
I hope you can read it and increase your judgment on the stock market
At the same time, we purchased 1,000 stock books from Popular Bookstore
Give it to everyone for free, I hope you can read it well
Click on the session, find us to register information, and we will mail you books

As the modus operandi of scam perpetrators continuously evolve, the Exchange again would like to urge the public to be wary and alert of investment or phishing scams while not forgetting to verify any web link or invitation to participate in any scheme. This can be assessed in several ways, not limited to scrutinising the web address, consistency of historical posts, appropriateness of grammar or language style, and number of followers. Various social media applications such as Facebook, Instagram as well as popular chat applications such as Whatsapp, Telegram and iMessage have been used to lure unsuspecting members of the public to participate in dubious investment schemes or to sign up for giveaways. Recent scams that have been identified are listed on,
